

EXPRESS TAGGING/EARLY DROP OFF
Consignor Agreement
 This is a binding agreement between Fairytale Threads, LLC and the Consignor listed below.

As an Express Tagging consignor, you will earn a commission rate based on the option you choose below. This percentage is firm, and no additional percentage can be earned by working a volunteer shift. Once dropped off, you have given Fairytale Threads, LLC your permission to price the items as they see fit. Any items Fairytale Threads, LLC does not see fit for this sale, will be held for you to pick up at an agreed upon time before the sale (unless you have checked the donate box at the bottom of this page). Items not picked up within 3 days of being notified will be donated.

- Once you have registered and paid the $10 consignment fee through the Fairytale Threads website, you will be eligible to schedule a drop off time with a team member. The remainder of your consignment fee, based on the option you choose and amount of items dropped off, will be deducted from your commission check.
- All items will be prepared and priced to sell by our expert consignors. Our goal is to get you the biggest check!
- Please provide enough hangers for clothes, batteries for toys, or bags for parts. If you do not have enough, they will be provided for you at the following cost, taken from your final check: Hangers= $.10 each. Batteries = $1to $2 each battery, small bags = $.25 each, large bags = $.50 each, jumbo bags = $1 each, XL bags= $2.50 each.
- Infant sized clothes (newborn-6 months) will be limited to boutique brands, Janie & Jack, Gymboree, Hanna Anderson and other upscale brands. Carters, Target, Walmart and Old Navy type brands will not be accepted for tagging service due to the large amount of clothing in these sizes.
- When dropping off items, please deliver the in disposable boxes that close.
- Fairytale Threads, LLC is not responsible for any items that are or subject to a manufacturer's recall. It is the consignor's responsibility to check to see if items they consigned are on the government issued recall list.
- Fairytale Threads, LLC reserves the right to decline any item for any reason. Taggers have strict standards set by Fairytale Threads, they must follow. This will help keep our sale "upscale" and desirable for our shoppers. All sales are final.
- You will be able to shop the Consignor Presale on Wednesday, September 13 at 5pm!

You must be signed up as an Express Consignor by 8/18/17 and items must be dropped off no later than 8/23/17. Spots might fill up before those dates so please contact us ASAP to save your spot!

All unsold items must be picked up by the consignor, or a specified person, on Saturday, September 16, 2017, between 6:00-7:30pm or donated. A responsible party, assigned by the consignor to pick up their items must bring a drivers license or state issued ID for identification purposes. Any items left after 8pm on Saturday, September 16, 2017 will be donated.

Consignors agree to not hold Fairytale Threads, LLC, its owners, operators, event staff, volunteers or venue personally liable for any reason, including damage of consigned items, theft, loss, vandalism, fire or natural disaster.
